JOHNNY DC SAYS:

LET THE MAIL BEGIN!

It's summertime and your week is jam-packed with camp, pool parties, and hanging with your friends, right? That's why Sunday nights are prime time to chill with your family and laugh it up. No joke! You've got to check out Cartoon Network's Sunday movie night because it's the hot spot for blockbuster hits. And if you miss your friends, invite them over, too! Just make sure they bring extra popcorn. Sunday night is movie night -- every week at 8 pm on Cartoon Network!

Dear Powerpuff Girls,

I have always wanted to be a superhero like you guys. I have watched your show ever since it started showing on Cartoon Network.

Ivy Nicole Pizzo, age 10
Wood River, Illinois

Did you know that you were born around the same year POWERPUFF GIRLS started showing on Cartoon Network?
— Johnny DC

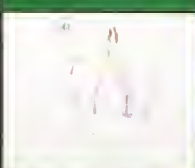

DRAWING BY IVY NICOLE PIZZO

Dear Johnny DC,

I created a new enemy for the Powerpuff Girls. His name is X-Fiend. He controls elemental and psychic powers. Can you write a story of the Powerpuff Girls' first encounter with X-Fiend?

Jesse Hodges
Cleveland, Ohio

Your villain is awesome, but our writers and artists like to come up with their own ideas. THIS is the page where you guys get to show your stuff!
–Johnny DC

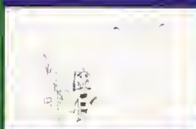

DRAWING BY JESSE HODGES

Dear Johnny DC,

I love CARTOON NETWORK BLOCK PARTY. But next time, could you make more ED, EDD N EDDY stories? I would appreciate it.

Alden
Sand Springs, Oklahoma

We'll try, Alden. As you can see, there are a lot of POWERPUFF fans out there, and Cartoon Network is introducing new great shows all the time. It's hard to get everybody in, but we like the EDs too!
— Johnny DC

"SUPER ED BROS." BY ALDEN

Dear Johnny DC,

BILLY AND MANDY crammed a lot into four pages in CARTOON NETWORK BLOCK PARTY #38. Ah yes, the class hamster. We had one, so it's a time-honored tradition that deserves to be made fun of. Mandy apparently has Lucy Van Pelt for an idol.

I liked the SCOOBY-DOO crack. How about a team-up? Maybe the "meddling kids" can prove that Grim is a phony.

FOSTER'S HOME FOR IMAGINARY FRIENDS had a good central conceit. Eduardo looks more like many zoo animals I have known than Bloo, but I suppose the crush of crowd adulation would soon prove to be too much for an Imaginary Friend who isn't used to being seen. Having seen the panda in the Washington D.C. zoo last year (not to mention a new baby) I'll testify to the "cute" part. But have you noticed that the zoo animal you want to take action pictures of the MOST is usually fast asleep at the very back of the cage?
